100 Word Project and Conference Brief:

Mashable, The Social Media Guide, will utilize our social media reach on Twitter, Facebook, MySpace, LinkedIn, RSS and beyond to raise money for four charities. Combined with viral platforms and positive messages our goals will be to reach every corner of the social media web. The project will begin June 1st, 2009 and will continue until the “Mashable Social Good Conference” event at the 92nd Street Y in New York City on August 28th, 2009. At the event we will announce final donation totals and have internationally recognized speakers who are tied both into social media and the charity process.

Key Marketing and Promotion Brief:

As a “Top 25” Blog and Twitter user, Mashable will run a viral campaign unlike any other. We will utilize over 3 million unique visitors from our blog plus our combined following of over 700,000 (through our social networks and RSS) to share a “Donation Widget” that is highly optimized for social media spread. Through “Partners”, including PR, Television, Print and Online Media and “Word of Mouth Marketing” we aim to raise $1,000,000 for our Charities (final goal amount to be determined prior launch date but not made public).
