Medellín-Colombia

Who we are?

We are a non-profit NGO. Since 1989, we have been carrying out social projects in the poorer communities of Medellin, Colombia.

We work with children, teenagers, young adults, and parents in multiple areas: childhood development, recreational education, prevention, arts, reading, sports and protection of the environment.

Indicators

* Support and training in personal skills to 500 children and young people in a year. At least 9.000 children and teens are at-risk of suicide, violation of criminal laws and be victims of the conflict, due to dysfunctional family relationships, lack of affection or few options to use their free time.

* 20% of young participants, are leaders in cultural, arts and community groups.

* Increase the percentage of children and adolescents registered or enrolled in artistic, recreational or cultural programs. In 2015, it was 1.94% in the city.

* Reduce the dropout rate (average is 4.7% in the neighborhoods of intervention)

* Decrease consumption of psychoactive and alcoholic substances in children and adolescents. (The average age in Medellin to start the consumption is between 10 and 15 years old)

* Reduction of pregnancy in girls and adolescents aged 10 to 14 years. (For 2016, in Medellin there were 6,117 pregnancies)

* Reduce the involvement of children and adolescents in armed groups. (More than 2,000 in the city of Medellin in 2016)
